PRELUDE

National Federation of State Cooperative Banks (NAFSCOB) established on 19 May, 1964 for promoting and protecting the interests of the member banks in all spheres of their activities. The broad objective of NAFSCOB is to facilitate the operations of State Cooperative Banks (StCBs) & District Central Cooperative Banks (DCCBs), in general and development of cooperative credit, in particular.

The activities of NAFSCOB are to (a) undertake relevant research studies in agriculture and rural credit from time to time and suggest appropriate strategies, (b) implement the 'All India Mutual Arrangement Scheme (AIMAS) evolved in 1965, (c) identify, formulate and evaluate the identified projects for the benefit of member banks, (d) develop a library-cum-documentation centre for providing research facilities to cooperatives, (e) disseminate information on latest innovations in banking practices, banking related technology, policies and decisions of various regulatory authorities and other aspects related to cooperative credit through 'NAFSCOB Journal of Rural Cooperative Credit and Banking', the house journal of NAFSCOB and (f) undertake any other activity for promoting, protecting and strengthening member banks.

NAFSCOB had many achievements to its credit in terms of undertaking a number of lobbying measures, activities, programmes and performing important role to ensure viability of the structure.

NAFSCOB as on October, 2024 organised 221 Seminars, conferences and workshops for different target groups viz., Chairmen, Chief Executive Officers/Managing Directors, Chief General Managers, General Managers and Personal Secretaries/Personal Assistants etc. in addition to maintaining regularity of statutory meetings. NAFSCOB submitted a total of 100 memorandums on most crucial issues to Government of India, RBI and NABARD. NAFSCOB has 446 publications at its credit.

An attempt has been made to depict pictorially by displaying/presenting at least one photo of each of the above activities wherever available with effect from the year 1983. A sincere attempt has been made to trace out the photos of most important events organised till October, 2024 to extend impressive coverage and create memoir of activities of NAFSCOB.
